1. TERMS & CONDITIONS FOR THE USE OF PLATINUM Mastercard

1.1 Definitions

In these “Terms and Conditions”, the terms and expressions below shall have the following meaning:

Bank

- means Danske Bank International S.A., a public limited liability company (société anonyme) incorporated under the laws of the Grand Duchy of Luxembourg, having its registered office at 13, rue Edward Steichen, L-2540 Luxembourg, registered with the Luxembourg trade and companies register under number B 14.101 and licensed as a credit institution in accordance with the Luxembourg law dated 5 April 1993 relating to the financial sector, as amended.

Bank Account

- means a single, collective or joint account opened in the name of, and held by, a client of the Bank to which all the fees, expenses and the Mastercard balance from the card account is charged.

Card Account

- means the intermediary account which is held by the Bank and to which all Mastercard transactions are charged.

Mastercard

- means the credit card(s) distributed by the Bank and available to the Bank Account holders.

PIN

- means “Personal Identification Number” which is the personal and confidential code which is allocated to each Mastercard.

Mastercard holder

- means a person having a Bank Account and a Card Account, to whom statements in relation to the use of the Mastercard(s) are sent.

Additional Mastercard holder

- means a person having the right to use a credit card, on the Mastercard holder’s bank account.
- Card holder
- means Mastercard holder and Additional Mastercard holder.

1.2 Benefits of the Mastercard

The Mastercard gives its holder the opportunity to purchase goods and services offered by merchants and companies linked to the Mastercard network when presenting the Mastercard and signing a transaction slip presented by those merchants and companies or by entering the PIN. A Mastercard holder may obtain cash from automated cash dispensers by entering the PIN.

The Bank do not bear any responsibility for errors and negligence committed by merchants or companies. The Bank cannot be held responsible for merchants or companies refusing Mastercard.

1.3 Issuing the Mastercard

The Bank issues Mastercard(s) to Bank Account holders only. The Mastercard is individual and personal and is therefore not transferable. The back of the Mastercard must be signed immediately by the holder whereby the Mastercard passes into the care of the Mastercard holder who then has the right to use it in accordance with these Terms and Conditions. The Mastercard is the property of the Bank.

1.4 Annual Subscription Fee

With the issuing of the Mastercard an annual subscription fee is due which is deducted in advance from the Card Account.

1.5 Period of Validity and Expiry

The Mastercard remains valid until the last day of the month and year embossed on the Mastercard. Once expired, the Mastercard has to be cut in pieces and returned to the Bank. When a Mastercard expires, a new Mastercard is automatically issued unless the Bank refuses the issue of a new Mastercard or the Mastercard holder notifies the Bank of the cancellation two months prior to the expiry date.

1.6 Collection and transfer of Personal Data

The Bank is authorised to process the personal data of the Mastercard and the Mastercard holder and Additional Mastercard holders. In order to enable the Mastercard to operate within the network, the Mastercard holder and Additional Mastercard holders authorise the Bank to transmit personal data relating to the Mastercard holder and Additional Mastercard holder and the credit limit attached to the Mastercard to third parties, forming part of the contractual network of the international Mastercard system, to card producers and printers and to international settlement and approval centres, in so far as the provision of such data is vital.

By presenting the Mastercard the Mastercard holder gives his consent and mandate:

1. for the collection, retention and communication of identification data and information relating to account status by all means necessary to enable the Bank to keep the appropriate statements of transactions and accounts;
2. for such data and information being made available and transmitted to participants in and operators of the Mastercard payment network;
3. for the retention of such information and data by said participants in and operators of the Mastercard payment network; and

4. for the compliance by said participants in and operators of the Mastercard payment network with the laws and regulations governing the disclosure of information to which these participants and operators are subject.

The Bank shall not be held liable for any loss of information circulating via the Mastercard payment network, except in case of gross negligence or wilful misconduct. The Bank shall not be liable for any loss of information contained in statements such as details of account balances or account numbers. It is the responsibility of the Mastercard holder to ensure that no information is lost.

1.7 Issuing additional Mastercards

The Mastercard holder may apply for additional Mastercard(s) to be issued to specified people which means additional Cardholder(s) who in turn will have the right to use these cards, transactions being charged onto the Bank Account.

1.8 Proof of transactions using the Mastercard

The use of the Mastercard in conjunction with a PIN constitutes, independently of the amount in stake, proof of an instruction given by the Mastercard holder to the Bank to debit the transaction amount from his own Card Account as if this instruction had been given in writing by the Mastercard holder. It follows that the Mastercard holder may not oppose the debiting of a known transaction amount from his Card Account once the Mastercard has been presented in conjunction with the use of the PIN. The electronic records of transactions held by the Bank constitute sufficient proof of transactions and have the same evidential value as a written document.

1.9 Statements of Bank Account

Once a month the Mastercard holder receives a statement listing all the transactions made with the Mastercard(s) linked to the Bank Account, since the issuance of the previous statements. It is understood, that the Mastercard holder failing to object in writing to the transactions listed in the statement within a period of 30 calendar days acknowledges the monthly balance.

Statements relating to additional Mastercard(s) are only sent to the Mastercard holders, unless other instructions are given to the Bank. The Mastercard holder has the obligation to notify the Bank of any change to the billing address.

1.10 Card account

The Card Account is debited of the amount calculated on the basis of all transactions and cash withdrawals done with the Mastercard, in addition to fees, expenses and the annual subscription in relation to the Mastercard. For cash withdrawals, the statements show the amount advanced as well as the administration costs and commissions which the financial institution making the cash payment charges to the Bank.

Transactions made in foreign currencies are converted into Euro by the international clearing institution dealing with the different card systems using the valid exchange rate on the transaction processing day of the clearing institution. A currency exchange commission also applies.

Conversion rates for use outside of the Euro zone
Conversion of foreign currencies to Euro is based on an average rate calculated from Mastercard exchange rates for all transactions on that day in the same currency. To this is added a variable margin, currently 1.5% of the amount for European currencies* and 2.0% for non-European currencies. Currency is converted at the rate applying on the business day NETS executes the transaction. Current rates can be found at www.nets.eu/valutakurser. Exchange rates change continually and without notice.

At www.danskebank.lu/exchange-rate, you can see the difference between the actual total conversion costs at the time of the transaction and the total conversion costs calculated on the basis of the European Central Bank (ECB) reference rate. You can choose to have the difference shown as a percentage or as an amount. Note that the ECB reference rate only covers European currencies* and that the exchange rates change daily. (*CHF, CZK, DKK, GBP, HUF, ISK, NOK, PLN, SEK, BGN, HRK, RON)

There is a mark-up on the exchange rate when the Mastercard holder uses their credit card for a purchase or to withdraw cash in an EEA currency other than Euro. The Bank informs the Mastercard holder of the mark-up via a text message. The text message is sent the first time the Mastercard holder makes a payment in the EEA currency. The Mastercard holder will receive text messages monthly if they continue to use the card for payments in the EEA currency. The Mastercard holder pays any costs related to internet and mobile data usage to receive text messages from the Bank. The Mastercard holder can unsubscribe from text messages by sending a text message with the text "STOPCCY" to 321

1.11 Methods of payment

The Bank Account holder irrevocably authorizes the Bank to deduct from the Bank Account the overall amount due and shown on the statement.

1.12 Overdrawn account

The Bank reserves the right to block and/or withdraw the Mastercard(s) if the Bank Account becomes overdrawn without prior authorization from the Bank Account holder. Any outstanding balance shown in the statement falls due immediately and is deducted from the Bank Account.

1.13 Loss or Theft

In case of the Mastercard being lost or stolen or the PIN becoming known, even unintentionally, the Mastercard holder must immediately contact the following number: Danske Bank International S.A. phone: +352 46 12 75 551

Country and phone number/SMS Short code

Danmark: 3326 Norway: 8540
Sweden: 71040 Finland: 12581

This notification must be confirmed in writing as soon as possible and the Police must be notified of loss, theft or improper use of the Mastercard within 24 hours.

Furthermore, proof of the report to the Police must be sent to the Bank as soon as possible.

As soon as the Bank has been notified by the Mastercard holder, the Mastercard holder can no longer be held responsible for the misuse of the Mastercard. Until the notification has been received, the Mastercard holder remains liable for any fraudulent use of the Mastercard up to an amount of EUR 50. However, in case of fraudulent misconduct or gross negligence by a Card holder, the Mastercard holder is responsible for any misuse of the Mastercard even after having sent the notification in writing.

If the Card holder finds his/her Mastercard after having notified its loss, the Mastercard can no longer be used, it must be cut in pieces and returned to the Bank.

The same procedure applies if the Card holder assumes that a third party has discovered the PIN.

Blocking of the Mastercard automatically results in a new Mastercard being issued at the Mastercard holder's expense.

1.14 Recording of telephone calls

Card holders acknowledge that the Bank, for reasons of proof and security, to record any telephone calls for the gathering of evidences and security reasons. Card holders agree that records may be used in a court of law.

1.15 Termination

A Mastercard holder may, at any time and without any reason, terminate the contract.

The Bank may, at any time, terminate the contract if a Card holder breaches any of his/her obligations under these Terms and Conditions or any other agreement entered into with the Bank.

Upon termination of the contract, the overall outstanding balance of the Card Account will become due immediately and will be debited from the Bank Account. In addition the account holder is liable for all transactions not yet debited from the Card Account at the time of termination. An early termination does not bear any influence on the amount of conventional interest nor does it entitle the Mastercard holder to a partial or complete reimbursement of the paid annual subscription fee.

1.16 Conditions for the termination of the contract by the Mastercard holder

If a Mastercard holder wishes to terminate the contract, a written statement must be sent via Danske eBanking, by registered mail or handed in to the Bank. The Mastercard holder is obliged to return the card(s) to the bank. The termination of the contract is only effective upon receipt of the Mastercard(s) by the Bank.

Termination of the contract by the Mastercard holder entails the termination of all contracts related to additional Mastercard holders.

Termination of contract by an Additional Mastercard holder who is not a Bank Account holder does not entail the termination of the contract with the Mastercard holder who is the Bank Account holder and any other additional Mastercard holders.

Mastercard holders reserve the right to terminate the contract between the Bank and additional Mastercard holders. In this case the Bank Account holder is jointly and severally responsible for the transactions carried out with this card until returned to the Bank.

Terminations less than 2 months before the expiry date of a Mastercard do not release the Mastercard holder from paying the coming annual subscription fee.

1.17 Conditions for the termination of the contract by the Bank

The Bank may terminate the contract with a Mastercard holder with 15 days' written notice sent via Danske eBanking or by registered mail.

Each Card holder linked to a Bank Account is informed of the termination.

Upon notification of the termination of the contract the Mastercard holder(s) can no longer use the Mastercard which must be returned to the Bank. However, the Mastercard holder remains responsible for the transactions done with the Mastercard after notification and until all cards have been returned to the Bank which does not exclude a liability for payments related to the misuse of the Mastercard.

Any misuse of the Mastercard after requested return by the Bank will result in legal action by the Bank.

1.18 Modification of these Terms & Conditions

The Bank reserves the right to change the Terms & Conditions at any time. The Bank will in connection to changes always publish the new version of the document on the Bank's website. It is the Card holder's responsibility to regularly review the Terms & Conditions posted on the website to ensure that he/she is aware of the latest terms and conditions.

The Card holder's continued use of the card shall be deemed to signify his/her acceptance of the modified Terms & Conditions unless he/she notifies the bank within one month from the date on which the changes are available on the Bank's website.

1.19 Validity

If any provision under these Terms and Conditions becomes invalid, the legality and enforceability of the remaining provisions are not in any way affected or impaired.

1.20 Applicable Law – Jurisdiction

These Terms and Conditions are governed by, and shall be construed in accordance with, Luxembourg law. Any dispute arising in connection with these Terms and Conditions shall be submitted to the courts of the district of Luxembourg-City.
